CLONE ALERT

It is brought to the notice of prospective paper-contributors and general public, that the Journal of Foundational Research, is a peer-reviewed, biannual research journal of Department of Philosophy, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur.

We do not charge any processing/submission/publication fees whatsoever.

The paper contributors get free of cost, a hard-copy as well as a soft copy of the journal.

We do not normally publish any article outside the domain of philosophy.

We never send any invitation/call for papers to scholars.

We recently learnt that some fraudulent online publication channel/agency is cloning and forging our journal and asking for payments in the name of article processing charges.

Please beware of such scams and imposters who are cloning our journal.

Please note that all the issues of the journal are mailed to UGC CARE, immediately after publication, and also kindly note that all the recent issues of the journal are uploaded at <https://unirajphilosophy.ac.in/JrnlRecentIssues.aspx>

We request the academic community to immediately inform us about any suspicious mail/document, sent/issued in our name.
